Dady & Gardner, P.A. Announces Expansion with Opening of New East Coast Office

Office to be led by Veteran Franchise Attorney Nicole Liguori Micklich, joined by Attorneys Sam Agostini and Linda Urso

Minneapolis, MN — December 3, 2025 — Dady & Gardner, P.A. is pleased to announce its continued growth with the opening of a new east coast office. The expansion reflects the firm's commitment to serving franchisees, dealers, and distributors nationwide with local presence and nationally recognized expertise.

The new east coast office will be led by Nicole Liguori Micklich, a respected franchise and business litigation attorney known for her strategic approach to complex disputes and hands-on client service. Joining her are Sam Agostini and Linda Urso, both experienced practitioners who bring strong backgrounds in franchise, commercial, and regulatory matters.

"I am honored to continue representing franchisees and dealers from around the world with some of the most revered members of the franchise bar and to join Dady & Gardner as the Managing Partner of the firm's Northeast office," said Nicole Liguori Micklich. "Having worked with renowned litigators from Dady & Gardner in the past, our team is excited to join the firm. With the addition of this east coast office, Dady & Gardner will remain at the forefront of franchisee advocacy in the U.S. and internationally."

Dady & Gardner Managing Partner, Mark Dady, emphasized the strategic importance of the expansion. "Nicole is an exceptional litigator and a highly regarded authority in franchise law. Her dedication to franchisees aligns perfectly with the mission Dady & Gardner has had for over 30 years, and we are thrilled to have her, Sam, and Linda spearheading our presence in the Northeast," said Dady. "This new office strengthens our ability to provide local, accessible, and highly specialized support to clients nationwide."

The east coast office will serve franchisees, dealers, and independent businesses across the nation, providing the full range of Dady & Gardner services, including franchise litigation, regulatory compliance, contract negotiation, dispute resolution, and system-wide franchisee representation.
